No Birthdays and No Anniversaries this week.

Something to ponder...

Twinkling lights, flowers, Nativity scenes at Mass. Christmas stockings, trees and wreaths at home. Festive music everywhere we go. A few weeks of joyful celebration, and then what? We take down the lights and the trees and put away the seasonal ornamentation. Clean, simple decorations replace the ornate.
When the white and gold of Christmas have been exchanged for the green of Ordinary Time once again, how can we take the lessons of the holiday season and bring them forward into the new year?
