who was received into the Church,
made her First Holy Communion, and Confirmation during the beautiful Easter Vigil Mass.
Welcome Natalie!

Confession brings everything into the light. God doesn't just fix the cracks; He rebuilds us on the firm foundation of His Word, making sure we can stand against any storm.

GOSPEL MEDITATION—5/3/2026—Fifth Sunday of Easter

We generally approach life with the question, “What can this do for me?” We try a new workout, a low-carb diet, intermittent fasting, or a new career path, hoping it will make us healthier, stronger, happier. The assumption is that if I invest in this, I’ll eventually reap some benefit, or I won’t do it.

It is easy to think of faith the same way: if I really practice my faith, what will it do for me? Will it make me calmer, more moral, more successful?

But in today’s Gospel, Jesus says something astonishing. He doesn’t present himself as a teacher who shows us the way to life. He says, “I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life.” (John 14:6) He is not merely a guide toward some higher benefit. He is the benefit itself. To know him is to know Life.

Thomas Aquinas explains that every desire in the human heart — love, joy, meaning, all of our restless cravings — is really an indirect cry for life. Even despair testifies to this longing: people despair precisely because they feel they are not, and might never be, fully alive.

The good news is that Jesus is not simply the means to a better life; He is Life itself. To believe in him is to share in God’s own eternal vitality. Not simply later but even now. Faith is not a transaction that produces results — it is a union that fills us with joy. To be in communion with Christ is to be truly, fully alive. Father John Muir ©LPI

CHANGE COLLECTION: CANISTERS AT CHURCH ENTRANCES

Father has selected a committee to represent the Lenten donations collected at each of our parishes.

The committee members (one member from each of our 3 parishes) are as follows:

St. Agnes: Carol Brunswick—Immaculate Conception: Andrea Haviar—St. Cecilia: Doug Tomasoski

If you know of any person, family or cause within our communities that would benefit from a portion of this money, please contact one of the committee members.

The grand total collected from all three of our parishes is $3698.00

Your generosity is appreciated. Thank you to our parishioners and guests who participated. God bless you all.
